party would be gone if the Democratic party was in power, for reunion is impossible only with a Democratic administration. The following extract from the Mobile Register tells its own story:

"We thank God from the depth of our hearts that the authorities in Washington snubbed Vice President Stephens in his last attempt to confer with them on international affairs; without form or ceremony. It has long been known here that this gentleman thought, if he could get up to whisper in the ears of some men about Washington, the result might be terms of peace on some union or reconstruction. He seems to forget that Douglas, with whom he used to serve, was dead; and notwithstanding his mantle had fallen by dividing it into four pieces, upon Richardson and Voreas, Valandigham and Pugh, still the Democratic party is not in power now, and we may thank God for it."

The Democratic party will be in power after the next 4th of March, and we believe this country will have the most abundant reason for thanking God for it, though it may not please the Richmond rebels or their Republican shoddy confederates.—New York World.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CANVASS. The New York Tribune announces that Congress has decided that notes of the States which have been formally declared in insurrection shall vote for President till readmitted into the Union. The States thus excluded from participating in the approaching Presidential contest are as follows: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida, Arkansas, Texas.

Our next President and Vice President are therefore to be chosen by the following:

States.	Electors.	States.	Electors.
Maine	7	Ohio	21
New Hampshire	5	Indiana	13
Massachusetts	12	Illinois	10
Rhode Island	4	Nichigan	8
Connecticut	6	Wisconsin	8
Vermont	5	Minnesota	4
New York	33	Iowa	8
New Jersey	7	Kansas	3
Pennsylvania	26	Missouri	11
Delaware	3	California	5
Maryland	7	Oregon	3
West Virginia	5
Total, 24 States, Electors.....	241

Necessary to choose.....121

Several Territories have just been authorized to form State Constitutions, and to be admitted under them by proclamation on due proof that they have been ratified; but as they will at any rate have but three Electoral votes each, and they are not certain to accept the privileges proffered them, we do not include them above.

"CORRESPONDENCE WANTED."—A gentleman in this city, who prides himself upon his excellence and affections as a husband but who on the side, decided tendencies as a gallant among the gentler sex, lately advertised in a Cincinnati paper for a "correspondence" with someone of the fair sex. His wife saw the advertisement and being herself somewhat "gay and festive," at once answered it, also under a fictitious name. The correspondence grew remarkably loving, and the gentleman asked the photograph of his fair innamorata, and a meeting, promising his own photograph and his whole heart in return.

It was finally arranged that the photographs should be sent on the same day, and a place of meeting was also arranged. The astonishment of the wife on receiving her husband's photograph, and the bewilderment of the husband on receiving his wife's "picture," may be imagined.

Each vowed to the other that they understood it all the time, and was just carrying on a good joke, but it has been noticed that the husband ever since exhibits decided nervous emotion when he reads an advertisement of "correspondence wanted," doubtless fearing that his wife may be inclined to carry on the "old joke," with some one else. A little jealousy, may, however, we back his trust affections.—N. Y. Ledger.

An Appeal to the Public!

I WOULD respectfully call the attention of the people of Ashland and adjoining counties to the fact that I have removed my clothing and furnishing store from my old and well known emporium to a much larger and more commodious room, viz: the building nearly opposite the Bank, formerly occupied by T. C. Bushnell as a Dry Goods store. I have filled the large room with what I KNOW I can safely state a larger stock of and all kinds of furnishing goods of the newest and best patterns than can be found south of the principal cities of the country. I say this because I KNOW IT, and all that is wanted to convince anybody of this fact is to call and examine my stock. It consists of a very large assortment of cloths and CASSIMERES, which I will sell at wholesale, by the piece, or yard. I also keep always on hand,
